CHAPTER 2

THE COMMITTEES AND THE OFFICERS TASKS

1§ EDUCATION COMMITTEE

The Education Committee continuously, on behalf of the union, survey the education offered by the Faculty of Law. The committee consists of a total of six officers, with each position having its own area of responsibility. The committee's officers are part of the Drafting Committee on Education Issues, where the officers, together with the Law Student's Unions President and President emeriti, prepare educational issues.

The President has the general and coordinating responsibility for the committee. The Vice President Student Representatives is responsible for coordinating the meetings for the student representatives for the first six semesters, and appointing new course representatives for each semester. The Vice President Study Environment is responsible for the study environment issues. The post includes the title Student Health and Safety Representative. The officer works with the mental and physical study environment for law students. The Vice President Master's Programmes is responsible for the two Master's programs offered by the Faculty. The Vice President Elective Courses is responsible for the elective courses. The Vice President Equality and Equal Treatment is responsible for issues of equality and equal treatment within the education.

2§ PARTY COMMITTEE

Each year, the Party Committee will organize two novice parties, an autumn party and a spring ball. The officers of the Party Committee are free to internally divide their work. The clubmasters should, mainly, be in charge of the planning of the four parties. As a general rule, pubmasters are responsible for the purchase and sale of alcoholic beverages and the tidiness of the alcohol storage and the bar. The kitchenmasters are responsible for the Union's gastronomic events.

3§ THE LECTURE COMMITTEE

The Lecture Committee arranges the Union's major lectures. With the help of professional lawyers, the Lecture Committee highlights various aspects of law and attracts a wide audience. It is up to the current officers to book interesting speakers based on current topics. In addition, the committee is responsible for certain activities together with the Faculty of Law.

4§ INTERNATIONAL STUDENT COMMITTEE

The international student committee (ISC) is responsible for organizing activities for the union's exchange students and for promoting meetings between these and the union's other members. ISC is expected to actively work to include the exchange students who study at the Faculty of Law in the activities of the Law Student Union.
